

Mayfield sets up £7m boutique scheme in Bermondsey

Developer assembles 8,000 square foot site near Tower Bridge; achieves planning for nine-unit scheme

Luxury developer Mayfield has assembled a promising-looking scheme in Bermondsey, south east London.

The firm has just completed on a mid-terrace property on Grange Walk, near Tower Bridge, where it already owns two adjoining buildings comprising an infill site. A very specific alternative location had to be found for the owner of the final piece of the jigsaw, which is why it took a bit longer to realise.
